Fundraiser Agreement:*Event: Vitality London 10,000 2019

1. All funds raised will be donated to the IPF.
2. The IPF will license to the Fundraiser (until the close of the Event) the IPF trade mark (number 2562072) and the right to use the IPF name and charity number for use solely during and to promote the Event provided that:
  - a. Any materials using the trade mark, name or charity number are approved in advance by IPF. All such uses need to comply with any guidelines provided.
3. The Fundraiser will comply with charity law regarding disclosure of fundraising statements and disclosure of registered charity numbers and with all other applicable law and regulation in relation to the Event, including but not limited to:
  - a. Not doing anything to bring IPF into disrepute
  - b. Not collecting in any public place without first obtaining a collector's licence from the appropriate local authority (usually the police or the council)
  - c. Not collecting on private property (including shops, pubs etc) without first obtaining the permission of the owner
4. The Fundraiser acknowledges that the IPF cannot take responsibility for any losses made through the Event or liability arising from the Event
5. The Fundraiser will inform IPF at the earliest possible opportunity if they have to withdraw from the Event due to injury or other circumstances
6. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law. Each party irrevocably submits for all purposes in connection with this agreement to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts
7. IPF will not pass your details on to any other organisation. We will use the information you have supplied to communicate with you in line with the Data Protection Act 1998 and may contact you in the future about fundraising opportunities or news we think will be of interest to you. We'd like to keep you updated with personal stories, updates on our work, and other opportunities to support the RFU Injured Players Foundation.
